

INDUSTRIAL/ORGANIZATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY GRADUATE PROGRAM Rockville, MD

Master of Professional Studies: Industrial/Organizational Psychology Academic Planning Form

General Information

Student Name: _____

Program Director: Dr. Ted Rosen (throsen@umbc.edu) Phone: 301-738-6171

Admission date: _____ Projected Graduation Date: _____

NOTE: This form serves as unofficial guidance in planning your MPS program. In coordination with the Program Director you may edit or modify your desired courses (where possible & appropriate) at any point while at UMBC.

Academic Plans and Record (Program requires 10 courses, 30 credits)

Course	Course Title	Semester Planned/Completed
Core Courses - Choose 5 (PSYC 672 Required)
PSYC 670	Industrial/Organizational Psychology
PSYC 671	Seminar in Social Psychology
PSYC 672	Introduction to Data Analytic Procedures in I/O Psychology (required)
PSYC 673	Legal, Ethical and Professional Issues in I/O Psychology
PSYC 674	Methods of Assessment in I/O Psychology
PSYC 601	Professional Human Resources Practice
Capstone Courses
PSYC 601	Practicum in I/O Psychology
Specialty Courses - Choose 4
PSYC 601	Group Decision Making
PSYC 601	Human Performance Technologies
PSYC 601	Organizational Surveys
PSYC 601	Program Evaluation
PSYC 601	Strategic Planning
PSYC 601	Other Topic (List topic: _____)
PSYC 669	Organizational Behavior Management
PSYC 676	Human Factors
PSYC 602	Instructional Systems Development I
PSYC 671	Principles in Training and Development

For I/O Psychology course descriptions please visit: www.umbc.edu/io.

For class schedules please visit: www.umbc.edu/go/schedule

Special Note: When necessary, please contact Ted Rosen at throsen@umbc.edu for course permission.